

Crossword No 2

Across

3. He made Samarqand into his capital in the 14th century (5 letters)
4. City in which Mawlana Hazar Imam was born (6)
9. Born in Persia in the 9th century, he was the first to describe the difference between measles and smallpox (2,4)
10. A large barrier built across the path of a river to hold back the water (3)
11. In 1610, he discovered that the earth revolved round the sun (7)
13. He wrote the first book on algebra (2,9)
16. A famous Muslim architect who designed over 300 buildings (5)
17. The Message of Allah sent to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) is compiled in this book (5)
18. Allah sent them to guide mankind (8)
20. A great city of learning built by the Fatimids in the 10th century that became an important Muslim capital (5)
22. It was one of the most important tool of the astronomer (9)
23. An ancient Greek doctor often called "the father of medicine." (11)
26. A 13th century Muslim astronomer and mathematician who worked at Alamut in Persia (5,2,3,2,4)
28. 'Ahl al-kitab' means 'People of the _____' (4)
29. After Hazrat Ali died, the Muslim community was ruled by this line of caliphs (8)

Down

1. The longest river in the world (4)
2. An old city and port, quite close to Cairo, founded in the 7th century (6)
5. City founded by Alexander in 332 B.C. that became a centre for science and literature (10)
6. The logo for the AKAA consists of this word repeated 8 times (5)
7. The Arabic name of the angel sent by Allah to reveal the first verses of His Message to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) (6)
8. The art of writing letters in beautiful handwriting (11)
12. In the 12th century, Arabic scientific books were translated by the Europeans into this language (5)
14. His medical book 'The Canon of Medicine' was translated into Latin and used in Europe as the main medical textbook (3,4)
15. It grew to be one of the greatest sea trade routes in the world (5,5)
19. Mawlana Hazar Imam was a student at this University in USA (7)
21. A famous poet who grew up in Seville, Spain and was educated in Cordova (3,4)
24. Prophet Muhammad's (pbuh) daughter, after whom the Fatimids are named (6)
25. "The party" of Ali (5)
27. Around 100 B.C., traders from Persia journeyed to China to buy this highly valued commodity (4)